

SANTINA PARRELLO

Born in Reggio Calabria, Italy, in 1973, she graduated in law from LUISS Guido Carli University, Rome, and began her training in 1999. She became a member of the Milan Bar in 2002.

Santina joined FTCC at the start of 2007 and handles both litigation and non-contentious matters in the Firm's areas of specialization, dealing prevalently with: copyright (including software issues), data protection, trademarks and other distinctive marks, unfair commercial practices, labelling of food products, television and internet law as well as proceedings before the main Italian administrative bodies (AGCM – AGCOM – the Italian Data Protection Authority).

Santina works in Italian and English.