

Paolina Testa

Partner

Born in La Spezia in 1956, Paolina graduated in Law from the University of Pisa as an internal student of Scuola Superiore di Studi Universitari e di Perfezionamento Sant'Anna, and has practiced since 1980.

As well as being a member of Milan Bar, she is qualified to appear before the highest Courts in Italy.

Paolina's practice involves all the areas of law handled by the firm, with a particular focus on advertising and communications law, industrial and intellectual property, unfair competition and food and beverage law.

Author of numerous legal papers and publications, she is a frequent lecturer at post-graduate master's courses and seminars.

Paolina lectures at Centre d'Etudes Internationales de la Propriété Industrielle, in Strasbourg, France.

She handles legal issues in Italian, English and French.

Paolina is a member of AIPPI – Italian Group (she sits on the Executive Committee), Associazione Italiana per la Tutela della Concorrenza, and LES.